Welcome to Marlborough

The Top of the South Branch would like to invite you to “Taste Marlborough”

For visitors to Marlborough, the region is an exciting vacation destination that provides an exhilarating and varied range of attractions and activities. From enjoying a glass of our world-famous Sauvignon Blanc at one of the region's numerous wineries to swimming with dolphins in the Marlborough Sounds, the region offers a multitude of recreational delights. If you enjoy kayaking or scenic boat tours, visits to formal gardens or hiking through native bush, Marlborough is the perfect place to relax and enjoy the finer things in life. For the eco-tourist and nature-lover, the region provides numerous opportunities to see some of our wildlife close up.

Marlborough is one of New Zealand's most innovative, vibrant and successful regional economies. The region is showing the way in areas as diverse as tourism and aeronautical engineering, wine production and marine farming. The diversity of our business environment reflects the vision of the Marlborough's business people and the vast potential of the region.

The Conference Venue

42a Alfred Street, Blenheim

Set in the heart of Marlborough and the beautiful regional centre of Blenheim and on the banks of the Taylor River, the Marlborough Convention Centre boasts state of the art facilities offered in a relaxed and tranquil setting that will enhance our event.

Accommodation

This year's conference will be slightly different as delegates will be staying at a range of different accommodation providers.

Marlborough has a wide range of accommodation options to suit different needs: water-side, bush and rural retreats to hotels and motels, many within easy walking distance of the main town centre. We have the great opportunity to choose from the following seven accommodation venues which are situated within walking distance to the Conference Centre, they are the Heartland Hotel, Lugano Motor Lodge, Blenheim Palms Motel, Bella Vista Motel, Waterfront Motels, Knightsbridge Motel and the Blenheim Spa Motor Lodge.

Guest Speakers

Graham Bell

Graham Bell is the host of the long running and extremely successful television series "POLICE TEN 7".

Formerly Detective Inspector in charge of Criminal Investigations for the Bay of Plenty Police District.

With over 33 years in the NZ Police, most of it involved in investigating serious crime, Graham is one of New Zealand's most experienced and successful detectives. Widely recognised as an expert in homicide investigations, he has also shown a flair and talent for getting his message across in the media.

Dr Richard Murray

National President of the Australian Institute of Animal Management

Dr Richard Murray is a North Queensland veterinary practitioner who has had a deep interest in and commitment to animal management for most of his professional career. For his work, in concert with many remarkable people in this field, he has been recognised in his being awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia and the Gilruth Prize of the Australian Veterinary Association. Dr Murray is the author of discussion papers for this Conference "Who should be paying for Animal Management" and "Dogs 101, Better Behaviour, Better Bond"

Gary Jackson

MNk9, Australia

Gary has trained in excess of 20 000 dogs in obedience, protection or detection and supplies K9's and handler training to Police, Army, Prisons, Air force, State & Federal agencies internationally. Gary has conducted several Law enforcement dog training seminars with international speakers and patrons and has taught handlers and trainers in numerous seminars in Australia and overseas. Some of Gary's career achievements include:

- Training the world's youngest Narcotic Dog at 11 weeks of age.
- Trained the world's first slider Turtle and egg Detection Dog for Queensland Dept. Of natural Resources.
- Trained the world's first Cane Toad Detection Dog for W.A Department of Environment and Conservation and two others working on Groote Eylandt
- Trained Australia's first operational Cadaver dog and worked with state Police departments for body searches including the infamous Backpacker murders.

Gary is an expert K9 decoy and for the past 25 years has agitated and evaluated 1000's of dogs with the use of body bite suits and concealed arm pads, Gary's expertise in this area has lead to many dog bite prevention seminars for Government and private agencies covering all aspects of reading and testing dogs for aggression. Gary continues this very important work educating people on how to avoid been bitten by dogs during their working day.

Janet Williams

NZ Detector Dogs

Janet's background is as a detector dog handler, senior handler, Canine Operations Supervisor and Team Manager responsible for the Biosecurity Detector Dog teams from the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry that covered all the major international airports across New Zealand protecting our borders from 1997 - 2009. New Zealand Detector Dogs endeavours to source their drug dogs from the SPCA, pounds or animalwelfare agencies in an effort to give the largely unwanted or untrainable dogs a chance at having a productive and happy future.
